

IF IT HAPPENS
IT'S HERE

HERALD SPORTING NEWS

IT'S RIGHT
IF IT'S HEREWHITE WINGS DEFEAT MURRAYPearson Started Off Well, but Could Not Hold Pace—
Wells Hits a Thousand.

Utah State League.

Team	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Salt Lake	6	2	.750
Murray	5	3	.625
St. Louis	3	6	.333
Portland	2	7	.286
San Francisco	1	8	.111

The White Wings added one more game to their list of winnings by taking Murray to camp yesterday at Walker's by a score of 11 to 4. Pearson, the elongated pitcher for the Smelter town, thought himself capable of duplicating his trick of the day before, when he made the Fort Douglas batters take to the woods, but failed. He started off well and then weakened. Salt Lake proceeded to weaken him by batting averages. In the seventh inning Wells was put in, and the youngster finished the game in fine style.

Hummell, the youthful iceberg, officiated on the rubber for Salt Lake and did not pitch as well as usual, but he never lost his head at any time, although he found himself in a bad hole several times. One of the prettiest plays of the day was a relay from center field via Castro to the home plate, calling a Murray man trying to score from first on a good two-bagger. Wells, Salt Lake's new left fielder, made his first appearance. He quit the game with a batting average of 1.000. Wells faced the pitcher five times, got one walk, one pretty sacrifice and two singles and a double. He also covered his field in good shape.

The score:

Murray.

AB.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
Donovan, rf.	5	0	0	0	0
Turner, mf.	5	1	1	3	0
Thorne, lb.	3	1	1	2	0
Smith, 3b.	4	0	2	5	2
Smith, 2b.	4	0	2	1	0
Hill, ss.	4	0	1	3	0
Taylor, cf.	4	0	1	1	2
Porter, 1b.	4	0	1	1	1
Pearson, p.	3	1	2	1	1
Wiscumb, p.	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	37	4	11	24	13

Salt Lake.

AB.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
James, mf.	4	2	2	0	1
Lumley, c.	5	1	1	7	1
McKean, rf.	3	1	2	1	0
McKean, 3b.	3	2	3	1	0
Castro, ss.	5	1	1	2	4
McStewart, 2b.	5	2	4	3	1
Smith, lb.	4	2	1	9	0
Kafer, 1b.	4	2	1	9	0
Hummell, p.	3	0	1	1	1
Totals	36	11	14	27	15

Score by innings:

Murray	000 100 000—4
Salt Lake	000 213 11—11

Summary:

Two-base hits—Gunn, Wells, Kafer.

Three-base hits—Scott. Base on balls—Off.

Pearson 2. Struck out—By Hummell 5.

By Pearson 2. By Wiscumb 1. Double by McKean. McKean, Stolen bases by McKean, Hummell, Stolen bases

by McKean, James, Wells, McKean. Sacrifice hits—McKean, Wells. Time of game

1 hour. Attendance—1,500. Umpire—

Wet.

BENEFIT FOR HOPPER.

Manager Redman of the Salt Palace, announced that arrangements were being made to give Norman Hopper a benefit at the Salt Palace track within the next few days. Redman has not yet completed his plans for the meet. Hopper continues to improve and it is believed now he will pull through.

The Use of Sexine Pills.

No man or woman who is nervous, weak or irritable should fail to take a treatment of Sexine Pills. The treatment costs only $5, and it is fully guaranteed. Sexine Pills make you strong and happy. Price $1 a box, six boxes

$5, with money-back guarantee. Address or call F. J. Hill Drug Co., "The Never Substitutors," corner Second

South and West Temple streets.

To Owners of Buildings

A large reduction in Fire Insurance Rates has been made on nearly all brick buildings. NO reason now for placing business with any but FIRST-CLASS COMPAN-IES. For information about new rates ask

Wakeling Insurance Agency

204 ATLAS BLOCK. Bell Phone 934

FIRE OUR WAY!

This firm fired our way and got their money. The following is the letter they wrote us:

The Advertiser Co.,

Printers and Publishers,

Karl Kowallis, Manager.

Logan, Utah, July 3, 1908.

Mr. Luke,

Salt Lake City.

Dear Sir:—Yesterday I sent you a bill to be collected. I am glad to state that it was paid this morning, so kindly drop the matter. In future whenever we have bills to collect we will fire them your way inasmuch as even mentioning your name to debtors bears loss of weight toward settling bills. Respectfully,

KARL KOWALLIS,

Manager.

Red Streaks of Honesty exist in everybody. Turn in your claims.

MERCHANTS' PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION

SCIENTIFIC COLLECTORS OF HONEST DEBTS.

Eight rooms, Commercial National Bank building, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Francis G. Luke, General Manager. "SOME PEOPLE DON'T LIKE US."

ONE MAID'S WISDOM.

(Chicago News.)

"Darling," pleaded the infatuated youth,

"I would willingly die for you."

"Nothing doing," replied the practical maid. "What I want is a man who is willing to live and earn a living for me."

THE BATH IN FRANCE.

An Englishman will do well, especially

if he goes to stay in an old-fashioned

house, to bring his gutter-pot with him.

I was staying many years ago in a

French country house and had neglected to do so. I asked for one in the morning. The footman said he would look and came back in triumph with

one. "What do they do here?" I asked.

"Madame la marquise takes the big bath

regularly once a month." "And monsieur le marquis?" I asked. "He never uses it. It would, however, be a mistake to imagine from this that Frenchmen are not so clean as we are. This horror of the tub is not necessarily an objection to cleanliness. The Frenchman washes himself in compartments under the impression that the water which has

cleansed one part of his body has fulfilled its duty and must not be used for another. It is a long and tedious process. Indeed, a Frenchman once told me he could not finish his bath in less than an hour and a half. But in the long run he is as clean as, if not cleaner, than

we are. It is, however, a terrible waste of time. In most French houses the tub has now, to the horror of all the more conservative French, become an institution. But there is one thing in the

it is as well to be provided against emergencies. I was some time ago staying in lower Brittany and asked the usual question. I was told the "Salle de Bain,"

"bath room," 400 yards off. I was in a hurry and could not manage this, so had to put up with a large footman. I was subsequently laughed at for my naivete.

"What you expect a bath in lower Brittany? But such things do not exist."

—Saturday Review.

CRAP DEALER KILLED.

Reno, Nev., July 5.—Last night during the celebration of the carnival, a man on the streets of E. Hall, a crap dealer, and wheelman, is dead as a result of a blow

on the head administered by some unknown person who escaped in the throng.

The police have arrested E. E. Fontaine

and A. McVittie, employees of the Nevada

News Company, and they are said to be

have admitted striking him.

THE BATH IN FRANCE.

An Englishman will do well, especially

if he goes to stay in an old-fashioned

house, to bring his gutter-pot with him.

I was staying many years ago in a

French country house and had neglected

to do so. I asked for one in the morning. The footman said he would

look and came back in triumph with

one. "What do they do here?" I asked.

"Madame la marquise takes the big bath

regularly once a month." "And monsieur le marquis?" I asked. "He never

uses it. It would, however, be a mis-

take to imagine from this that French-

men are not so clean as we are. This horror of the tub is not necessarily an

objection to cleanliness. The Frenchman

washes himself in compartments under

the impression that the water which has

cleansed one part of his body has ful-

filled its duty and must not be used

for another. It is a long and tedious

process. Indeed, a Frenchman once told me he could not finish his bath in less than an hour and a half. But in the long run he is as clean as, if not cleaner, than

we are. It is, however, a terrible waste of time. In most French houses the

tub has now, to the horror of all the more conservative French, become an institution. But there is one thing in the

it is as well to be provided against emergencies. I was some time ago staying in

lower Brittany and asked the usual question. I was told the "Salle de Bain,"

"bath room," 400 yards off. I was in a hurry and could not manage this, so had

to put up with a large footman. I was subsequently laughed at for my naivete.

"What you expect a bath in lower Brittany? But such things do not exist."

—Saturday Review.

CRAP DEALER KILLED.

Reno, Nev., July 5.—Last night during

the celebration of the carnival, a man

on the streets of E. Hall, a crap dealer, and

wheelman, is dead as a result of a blow

on the head administered by some unknown person who escaped in the throng.

The police have arrested E. E. Fontaine

and A. McVittie, employees of the Nevada

News Company, and they are said to be

have admitted striking him.

THE BATH IN FRANCE.

An Englishman will do well, especially

if he goes to stay in an old-fashioned

house, to bring his gutter-pot with him.

I was staying many years ago in a

French country house and had neglected

to do so. I asked for one in the morning. The footman said he would

look and came back in triumph with

one. "What do they do here?" I asked.

"Madame la marquise takes the big bath

regularly once a month." "And monsieur le marquis?" I asked. "He never

uses it. It would, however, be a mis-

take to imagine from this that French-

men are not so clean as we are. This horror of the tub is not necessarily an

objection to cleanliness. The Frenchman

washes himself in compartments under

the impression that the water which has

cleansed one part of his body has ful-

filled its duty and must not be used

for another. It is a long and tedious

process. Indeed, a Frenchman once told me he could not finish his bath in less than an hour and a half. But in the long run he is as clean as, if not cleaner, than

we are. It is, however, a terrible waste of time. In most French houses the

tub has now, to the horror of all the more conservative French, become an institution. But there is one thing in the

it is as well to be provided against emergencies. I was some time ago staying in

lower Brittany and asked the usual question. I was told the "Salle de Bain,"

"bath room," 400 yards off. I was in a hurry and could not manage this, so had

to put up with a large footman. I was subsequently laughed at for my naivete.

"What you expect a bath in lower Brittany? But such things do not exist."

—Saturday Review.

CRAP DEALER KILLED.

Reno, Nev., July 5.—Last night during

the celebration of the carnival, a man

on the streets of E. Hall, a crap dealer, and

wheelman, is dead as a result of a blow

on the head administered by some unknown person who escaped in the throng.

The police have arrested E. E. Fontaine

and A. McVittie, employees of the Nevada

News Company, and they are said to be

have admitted striking him.

THE BATH IN FRANCE.

An Englishman will do well, especially

if he goes to stay in an old-fashioned

house, to bring his gutter-pot with him.

I was staying many years ago in a

French country house and had neglected

to do so. I asked for one in the morning. The footman said he would

look and came back in triumph with

one. "What do they do here?" I asked.

"Madame la marquise takes the big bath

regularly once a month." "And monsieur le marquis?" I asked. "He never

uses it. It would, however, be a mis-

take to imagine from this that French-

men are not so clean as we are. This horror of the tub is not necessarily an

objection to cleanliness. The Frenchman

washes himself in compartments under

the impression that the water which has

cleansed one part of his body has ful-

filled its duty and must not be used

for another. It is a long and tedious

process. Indeed, a Frenchman once told me he could not finish his bath in less